Romford - Kidspace Romford I have been to kids space with my four children and parents who are over 60. It's good but to make adults pay especially when they can't or don't want to go on anything is a bit much. I explained I had a slipped disk in my back and would not be able or did not want to participate and my parents were too old, they still made us pay, so on that experience I will not go again which is a shame.
