the wellness syndrome

defines the wellness syndrome to be an extension and a perversion of the concept of individual well-being. According to Cederstrom and Spicer, it's not just that you are expected to care for yourself, it's that you are blamed if you don't, and conversely, if there's anything at all wrong with your life, then it's because you've failed to sufficiently take care of yourself. Wed, 06 Jun 2018 18:48:00 GMT Review: The Wellness Syndrome | mathbabe - The health Syndrome is a mordantly witty research of ways ideology works at the present time. It demonstrates that the fixation on wellbeing and fitness is itself pathological and that illness could be liberating.
